

Eberly College of Arts and Sciences and Office of the Provost Graduate Student Travel Assistance Program - Guidelines

The Office of the Dean of the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences and the Office of the Provost will assist in the support of graduate student virtual travel expenses to professional society meetings. You must apply through your college or school for the support.

Eligibility:

- Awards will be considered for graduate students with travel expenses related to the presentation of their work at a professional meeting. Please include an abstract acceptance or other supporting documentation indicating your participation.
- Priority will be given to requests from doctoral students and students in terminal master's degree programs.

Funding Restrictions:

- The maximum award for any student is determined by the student's degree level. If the student is pursuing a non-terminal Master's degree, the maximum award is $200. If the student is pursuing a Doctorate or terminal Master's degree, the maximum award is $600. Each student may receive support from this program only one time during the fiscal year (July 1 – June 30).
- Funding will be provided in the form of a reimbursement only for actual costs incurred for registration fees, transportation, and lodging not to exceed the amount of the award. If your expenses total less than the award, the remaining funds will be used to support other student awards. This program will reimburse no other expenses.
- Requests to fund travel by several students to attend the same meeting or conference should be submitted together, and students are expected to share expenses and the award.
- The number and amount of awards are limited by the resources available to the College at the time of the request. A limited amount of funding will be available Fall (July 1st – Dec 31st) and Spring (Jan 1st – June 30th) semesters and will be provided on a first come-first serve basis until it is depleted.
- No changes to the itinerary are permitted. If a student receives an award and later decides to participate in a different conference, he/she forfeits the award and is ineligible for funding for the remainder of the fiscal year. The funds will be provided to another eligible student.

Prior approval and reimbursement guidelines

- All expenditures and reimbursements must follow appropriate West Virginia University procurement and travel regulations (<http://procurement.wvu.edu/home>).
- Students should contact their college Expert Business Office (EBO) or departmental representative to ensure that they obtain prior approval if needed and that they obtain and submit appropriate documentation for all expenses.
- Students will be reimbursed in the form of a lump sum check for their approved expenditures. Reimbursement checks will be mailed to the student's local address. Requests for reimbursement must be received on or before June 1 of the current fiscal year.

Prior approval and reimbursement guidelines (continued)...

- If your expenses total less than the award, the remaining funds will be used to support other student awards.
- Reimbursement requests should be submitted to your department no later than 30 days after the end of your activity. Failure to meet this deadline will result in forfeiture of the award.

Application Procedures:

- Requests should be made by completing the attached application form and obtaining the necessary approvals.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION:

- All travel requests MUST be submitted to the college PRIOR to departure.
- Applications for this program are due to the college on the 1st Monday of each month (unless it is a holiday, then it becomes the next business day). We recommend that applications are received by department chairs 1 to 2 weeks prior to the start of each month to allow for departmental approvals.
- Applications must be received on or before June 1 to be considered for the current fiscal year.

DEADLINE FOR RECONCILIATION:

- All receipts related to actual costs incurred for transportation, registration fees, and lodging MUST be submitted to your department within 30 days of your activity end date to ensure reimbursement. Meal receipts are not required.
